Elementary students celebrate Red Ribbon Week

OCS elementary students recently celebrated Red Ribbon Week. The week was full of variety of activities.

Nathan Roberts with D & N Productions kicked off our week with a magic show, comedy, music, and talking to the kids about saying NO to drugs. Lainey Wilson, Hannah Montana impersonator, was here on Tuesday to sing and talk about drugs and how it affects your life. Miss Louisiana was here for Chapel on Wednesday and discussed tobacco and the effects it has on your body and others.

On Thursday, the DEA came and spoke with the fourth and fifth grade about drugs. We ended the week with ULM students presenting "Tar Wars" to the fourth and fifth grade. Friday afternoon, PreK3 through fifth grade released Red Balloons. Coach Jeffrey Thomas led the balloon release.

We had a great week!!

Operation Christmas Child brings joy and hope to children in desperate situations around the world through gift-filled shoe boxes and the Good News of God's love. Since 1993, more than 61 million shoe boxes have been packed, shipped, and delivered across the globe. People of all ages can be involved in this simple, hands-on missions project while focusing on the true meaning of Christmas—Jesus Christ.
